

Summary and Next Steps

The first step in reducing poverty and injustice in developing countries is to look deeper and understand the realities faced and the connections between people around the world. This is an important step in creating empathy for the rural poor in the next generation of leaders — today's students!

This guide was developed to help children understand rural communities in developing countries and some of the forces that perpetuate their cycles of poverty. More importantly, this guide is to give students hope that change is possible. Everyone can contribute to empowering communities to have the resources to be self-sufficient and break their cycle of poverty. (Please see the Head, Heart and Hand Approach on page 4 which highlights the importance of action.)

The second step is to move informed students to action. Students will see how their actions will lead to healthier children, families and communities. Their support will enable families to earn better incomes so they can afford school fees for their children as well as meet other needs. Families will feel empowered and will have more hope for their future.

Your students can help CHF improve the lives of people in rural communities in developing countries by engaging in one of CHF's activities or fundraising events. CHF has many successful stories of schools that are supporting our projects in various developing countries. Visit our web site at www.chf-partners.ca and click on Teachers for the latest school success story.

CHF encourages your school to get involved!
